 7. Saint John Chrysostom

St John was Archbishop of Constantinople, and an important Early Church Father. (Born 349 – died 14 September 407). He is known for his preaching and public speaking, his denunciation of abuse of authority by both ecclesiastical and political leaders.

This prayer comes from his Divine Liturgy, which is still in use in the Orthodox church.

We need to arm ourselves with it, as we begin to move towards driving the Prince away. Let's put it in our arsenal.

O Eternal God, Who has redeemed the race of men from the captivity of the devil, deliver your beloved child Ghana from all the workings of unclean spirits. Command the evil and impure spirits and demons to depart from Ghana and not to remain nor hide in Ghana. Let them be banished from this the creation of Thy hands in Thine own Holy Name and that of Thine Only-begotten Son, and of Thy Life-creating Spirit, so that, after being cleansed from all demonic influence, Ghana may live godly, justly and righteously and may be counted worthy to receive the blessings of Thine Only-begotten Son and our God with Whom Thou art blessed and glorified together with the All-Holy and Good and Life-creating Spirit and ever and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

O Thou Who rebuked all unclean spirits and by The power of Thy Word has banished the legion, come now, through Thine Only-begotten Son upon Ghana, which Thou hast fashioned in Thine Own Image and deliver Ghana from the adversary that holds us in bondage, so that, receiving Thy mercy and becoming purified, we might join the ranks of Thy holy flock and be preserved as a living temple of the Holy Spirit and might receive the divine and holy blessings through the grace and compassion and loving kindness of Thine Only-begotten Son with Whom Thou art Blessed together with Thine All-Holy and life-giving Spirit now and ever and unto the ages of ages. Amen.
